“It brought back my interest in artistic things” E.A. Ingham – Wallingford Participant

“I get to do what I like to do: Art” Alyce Ingstrom - Wallingford Participant

“This SCA program was a wonderful experience. Learning not only how to do things, but from my own attempts and from others. Thanks to SCA for creating this opportunity and I look forward to other classes. I do wish classes could be at least 2 ½ hrs long!” Diane Morris – Wallingford Participant

Susan is an incredible teacher as well as artist. She encourages all students, demonstrates methods and techniques, and as well all learned, art is for all!” Diane Morris – Wallingford Participant

“Our teacher was great and made the class a happy place to be” Tracy Budesh – Wallingford Participant

“This class had an impact on me. I have a son with a developmental disability and this class helped me to realize that I could do more art at home too. I loved seeing others doing artwork and was amazed by what people could do.” Julie Willaford – Wallingford Participant

“The students bless me with their creativity despite physical limitations that, honestly, would be quite dismaying” Susan Waite – Wallingford Teacher

“This was such a relaxing experience and it was wonderful to meet new people. There is a bit of unknown in art and I liked that” – Julie Willaford Wallingford

“The teacher was perfect for this class, very attentive and encouraging. She showed everything we need to know” Julie Willaford – Wallingford Participant
